

Your Contribution Makes a Difference!

The Alpha-1 Association's mission is to identify those affected by Alpha-1 Antitrypsin Deficiency and to improve the quality of their lives through support, education, advocacy and research. That mission is fulfilled through a national network of support groups and an array of educational materials and program. The Alpha-1 Association advocates for the community on a host of issues including organ allocation, airline oxygen, COPD Congressional Caucus and access to care.

The Alpha-1 Association is a nonprofit, 501(c)3, membership organization founded in 1991. Contributions may be fully tax-deductible. All contributions go toward support, education and advocacy.
